Demolition is underway to clear the site for upcoming construction of the Via Mizner project.

DEMOLITION STARTS TO MAKE WAY FOR MANDARIN ORIENTAL

25. The former Citibank and Sun Trust buildings in Boca Raton will be demolished to make room for a project that will include the Mandarin Oriental Hotel and The Residences at Mandarin Oriental, Boca Raton, according to a spokesperson from Pinnacle Advertising and Marketing Agency. This will be the fifth location nationwide for the hotel and luxury apartment building chain and will be a part of the boarder Via Mizner project. The Residences will have 85 homes with ocean and golf course views, including one- to four- bedroom options that start between the mid-$1 millions and low $4 millions and a penthouse collection starting in the low $8 millions. Completion is scheduled for early 2020. Visit moresidencesbocara-ton.com or call 561-750-7055.

The Residences at Mandarin Oriental will be at 105 E. Camino Real and the sales office is at 10 E. Boca Raton Road.
